Captain McCarthy Tells Y. M. C. A. Boys of Time When It Was Almost Food.

MANY WIN DISTINCTIONS

Students of the Evening College Have Interesting Commencement-Elegant Supper.

Before an audience made up of a large number of young people and a liberal cattering of adults. Captain Carlton McCarthy, the next Mayor of Richmond, last night delivered an address bristling with seasonable advice and not late political convulsions in the city.

enjoyed the situation is manifest from the frequent laughter and applause hat almost shook the house when

SEASONABLE AND WISE.

In the course of his talk Captain Mc-Carthy told his youthful hearers many things that were seasonable and wise. He advised them to guard their self-respect, and, first of all, to try to get along with themselves. To do this they should fly from secret faults and live happily and simply as a boy should. They should make their mother their chum and stick by her and learn from her throughout life. Above all, they should be boys and not try to imitate and ape the man. It was bad enough to and offensive, but positively filthy," said the speaker.

The audience looked at Captain Mc-Carthy, and remembering certain things began to smile and then to laugh aloud. "I will say," continued the Captain. "that nobody likes to chew a piece of good tobacco better than I do. Captain McCarthy continued his talk, and with frequent illustrations from the life of Lee, of Jackson, of Napoleon and others, urged the boys to be prepared for be relf-reliant. In conclusion, he said that after all, the sole value of education and study was in its effect upon character. He closed with the quotation: "Keep thy heart with all diligence far out of it are the issue of life."

ENJOYABLE EVENING.

The address by Captain McCarthy was one feature of a most pleasant evening. The trogramme was opened with prever

NOT HEREDITARY.

Maint people, even unto the present day of grace, consider baldness due to herediary influence.

Nothing is further from the truth—Baidness is caused by the onslaught of a minute organism which secretes itself beneath the scalp and attacks the roots of the hair-causing it to lose its life and fall out.

fall out.
This organism cannot be got rid of except by the free and persevering use of Newbru's Herpicide.
No matter how badly the scalp is affected the Dandruff surely disappears and hair health is restored when Herpicide is applied.

ANNUAL MEETING.

Male Orphan Society Chooses Officers and Directors.

The annual meeting of the Richmond Male Orphan Society was held in the State Bank building yesterday evening at 6 o'clock. Mr. W. S. Copeland was called to the chair and Mr. Fred Notling became the secretary. The reports of the several officers were read and ordered to be secretary. The reports of the several officers were read and ordered to be recorded.

The following officers for the ensuing year were elected:

Messrs. John L. Williams, president: Captain Maxwell T. Clark, first vice-president; General Charles J. Anderson, second vice-president; S. S. P. Patteson, secretary: John S. Ellett, treasurer; directors, the above named and Messrs. D. O. Davis, E. J. Hosher, L. T. Christian, W. S. Copeland, E. V. Valentine, S. H. Hawes, John C. Freeman, Henry Hutzler, T. J. Todd, S. Rutherford Rose, Dr. T. D. Merrick and Fred Nolting.

GRAVES CONVICTED.

Negro Gets Four Years for Snatching Lady's Pocket-Book. Snatching Lady's Pocket-Book.

In the Hustings Court yesterday James Graves, a short, black negro, was given four years for snatching a pocket-book from Mrs. M. A. Tucker some time last winter. Mr. H. M. Smith represented the negro and he tried hard to prove an allbit for his cilent, but the evidence against him was convincing, the lady having readily identified him as her assailant.

The jury had the case only a few moments before reaching a verdict.

Arthur P. Gordon was given five years in the same court for robbery.

There was little of interest going on in the other City Hall courts.

Convention.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

GREENSBORO, N. C., May 17.—Postmaster Charles Reynolds was unanimously nominated here as Republican candidate for Congress in the Fifth Congressional District to oppose W. W. Kitchen, the present Democratic representative and prospective nominee.

In his speech of acceptance, Reynolds strongly upheld the principle of high protection, denied that it encouraged trusts and promised to canvass the district on this issue. He was formerly Lieutenant-Governor, is a strong man and an excellent canvasser.

W. T. O'Brien and R. D. Douglas were elected delegates to National Compension. Contest over the latter showed that Collector Duncan of the Eastern District will control the State delegation and defeat the present National Committeeman Robinson, who refused to eat with a negro at the Hannah banquet.

The State Republican convention meets to-morrow and an immense crowd has arrived Ex-Attorney-General Waiser will be nominated for Governor. The balance of the State ticket not yet agreed upon. What is known as the "office-holding" element is in control with Collector Duncan, admitted now to be in the saddle.

Parties who were recently convicted of frauds against the government in the whiskey trials in the Federal Court here now out of the penitentiary under bonds on appeal, have been elected delegates from their counties to the State convention.

SONS OF ERIN DON'T WANT MONUMENT TO SALISBURY

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LONDON. May 17.—The House of Commons to-day voted an address to King Edward, praying him to order the erection of a monument to the late Lord Salisbury in Westminster, and at public expense.
The only dissenting voice came from the Irish benches, when John Redmond, the Irish leader, opposed the motion, though he did not go so far as to divide the house upon it.

Mr. Redmond said the Nationalists could not associate themselves with the movement, because Lord Salisbury had never been a friend of Ireland, had opposed all remedial legislation, and had characterized the Irish as "Hottentots," an expression which still rankled. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
